

TRC Global Solutions Opens Eastern Region Operations Center in Connecticut

Physical footprint to meet needs of clients, prospective clients and local TRC employees

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (September 14, 2010)

To satisfy current and future client needs and to better reflect the company's scope of operations, TRC Global Solutions has opened a new location in Trumbull, Connecticut.

"Almost a quarter of the U.S. population is located in the Northeast corridor, including TRC clients and a number of TRC employees," said Doug Berto, TRC's President. "The new location gives TRC a physical footprint in this important market and it will serve as a resource and meeting place for our clients, prospective clients and employees in the region."

TRC's Eastern Operations Center is located approximately 1.5 hours from New York City and 2 hours from Boston. The office is easily accessible from the Merritt Parkway, Interstates 95 and 84 and airports in Hartford, Westchester County, New York and New York City. The almost-new space was built out with state of the art technology and telecommunications during summer 2010 and is now fully operational.

TRC's Eastern Operations Center is located at 105 Technology Drive, Suite 2A, Trumbull, Connecticut 06611.
