Adjournment

Attending: Commission Chairman Pam Georgas, Treasurer Meg Barnes, Paul Buttress, Kevin Malone, Frank Grazynski, guest Ruth Mohr, and clerk Bonnie Lindsay

Meeting called to order at 7:10 pm.

Comments: Ruth stated she needs to have the Sunflower Garden and around the garden tilled in anticipation of the Center's Sunflower Festival.

The Long Hill Garden Club has requested use of the Center for meetings. This request is pending until requirements are determined.

Announcements: Deloitte Touche will be assisting the Center with planting and possibly picnic table construction. Deloitte Touche will donate approximately $1,000 towards plants after expected expenses.

Pam reported that Mike Paoletta has donated a kayak to the Center.

Treasurer's Report was approved as reported. Kevin moved on the motion and Frank seconded the motion. Motion passed.

Minutes were approved as presented. Meg moved on the motion and Frank seconded the motion. Motion passed.

2009 Program and Events:

Frank made a motion to hold one of the Center's "Members Only" event at the Sunflower Festival. The event would provide members with a free raffle ticket, free admission, free goody bag, and a free lunch. Kevin seconded the motion. Motion passed.

There was a discussion to determine if a "Halloween Haunted House" event could be held at the Center. This was tabled until finding a sponsor for the program, but the event was met with enthusiasm.

Another movie night has been scheduled for June 6, 2009.

Kevin gave an update on the website. They have determined who the website provider is and will contact them for prices.

Property & Building Development: John DeVecchio has discussed the pilings for the dock with Pam. He will determine the possibility of completing this project so the deck could be built.

Bullard Havens came out to the Center and met with Pam and Ray Lupkis. Bullard Havens will come back with a pricing plan for new siding of the Center. The project will be started in September.

There being no further business, Paul moved to adjourn the meeting and Kevin second the motion. The meeting was adjourned at 8:18 pm.
