

THANK YOU

THANK YOU

First Selectman Raymond G. Baldwin, Jr., co-chair of this year's United Way Days of Caring, would like to thank the United Way and the numerous individuals and organizations for their generosity and contributions. During the three Days of Caring held in October, 250 representatives of area companies and schools came together to support the Trumbull Nature and Arts Center in the form of volunteers, goods and services, and monetary sponsorship. Contributors included:

Antinozzi Associates	Payless Shoes
Aquarion Water Company	People's United Bank
Beardsley, Brown & Bassett	Poricelli's
Benedicts Home & Garden	Powerwashing by Josh Commodore
BJ's	RBS National Bank
Bridgeport Rotary Club	Sikorsky Aircraft Corporation
Cadbury Beverages	Somerset Capital
Coca-Cola Bottling of New England	Summit Remodeling
Fidelity Investments	Target
Gardner, Denver, Nash	Tashua Knolls Banquets
Glaceau	The Lewis H. Nash Foundation
Greater Bridgeport Mental Health	Town of Trumbull
Hampford Research	Town of Fairfield
Ideas Inc.	Trumbull Community Women's Club
JC Penney	Tumblegum Sun Wear
Long Hill Garden Club	Twombly's Nursery
Oce Corporate Printing	West End Lumber
Painter Supply

The efforts of this year's United Way Days of Caring will result in expanded awareness of this wonderful resource, as well as expanded outdoor areas for area students, families, and residents. For more information on this year's Days of Caring, see click on the link below:
<http://www.trumbull-ct.gov/content/74/173/1090/1100/default.aspx>