The Town of TRUMBULL through its Planning and Zoning Department is seeking requests for proposals (RFP) from qualified, experienced consultants whose firm has successfully completed similar zoning regulation work for other municipalities in Connecticut in the past to revise and/or rewrite the Town Zoning Regulations. Expertise in Connecticut land-use law is required.

Trumbull is a suburban town in Fairfield County, CT neighboring Bridgeport, Fairfield, Shelton, Monroe, Easton and Stratford with a population of approximately 36,000. The Zoning Regulations contain residential, business, industrial and overlay zones. The current zoning regulations are contradictory, difficult to navigate and do not align with the goals or our 2014 Plan of Conservation and Development (POCD).

The Planning and Zoning Commission, working with the Land-use Planner and staff have identified inconsistencies and sections where more clarity is needed.

Staff is requesting two cost estimates be prepared in response to this RFP the cost estimates should address the time and resource commitment needed for each of the scenarios below:

The revision, reorganization and update of the current regulations to provide a comprehensive, relevant, and user-friendly set of regulations. This abbreviated scope of work will be to create an up to date set of regulations, which will support the goal of a desirable, sustainable and economically viable community in keeping with the POCD. This effort will use our existing regulations as the basis for the update. Trumbull’s POCD can be found at http://www.trumbull-ct.gov/content/10623/10655/11009/default.aspx. The complete rewrite of Trumbull’s zoning regulations working with existing zones and in keeping with the POCD.

When developing cost estimates for the scenarios above please note that each scope should include assistance updating zoning applications to mirror the approved regulations.

Please note the selected firm will be required to incorporate recommendations and possible regulations from Trumbull’s Incentive Housing Zone/Housing Choice Plan/Study into the regulation update or rewrite. The Housing Choice Plan is scheduled to be completed in early Fall 2017.
The Planning and Zoning Department would like to see the zoning regulation revision completed by Fall of 2018.

As part of the RFP submission consultants should include the proposed number of meetings with the Planning and Zoning Commission, the Commission sub-committee, town staff and the public as required. At minimum, presentation of the final draft of the regulations, either in whole or in part, to the public will be required prior to final adoption of the Regulations. The consultant will be expected to make these presentations to the public and to the Commission.

The RFP shall include a response to each of the items below:

- Please provide a detail narrative describing the firm, members of the firm who would be working on is this specific project, and an outline of the experience of each key team member. Please attach resumes for each key team member to your submission.
- Please detail the firm’s experience (and the experience of key team members) with Connecticut Land Use Law and similar projects.
- Please outline the firm’s capacity to deliver the project products and requirements on time and on budget. Please include a timeline with all meetings and key milestones noted.
- Please describe the firm’s knowledge and understanding of the Trumbull community and the task.
- Include a statement indicating when the consulting company could begin the project.
- Include an estimated budget based on the two scope of work scenarios noted above.
- Include full contact information for three municipal work references the firm has provided services for in the past ten years.
- (Optional) Include work samples of other similar written regulations, reports or other materials deemed to be the consultant’s best work.
- Include full contact information for the key contact person at the firm who will handle this project negotiation.

Please be sure to fully document who will be doing the actual work on the Regulation revisions and their willingness to complete the task on time and on budget, as these terms will be included in the required agreement. Consultants interested in submitting an RFP should indicate the total proposed cost for the entire process based on the two scope of work scenarios noted above.

Consultants interested in submitting an RFP should submit ANY QUESTIONS to Rob Librandi, Land Use Planner 5866 Main Street, Trumbull, CT 06611 not later than March 14th 2017 by the close of business 5 pm.
The Town of Trumbull reserves the right to reject any and all proposals. This Request for Proposals does not constitute an agreement or a contract of any sort.
