

Biography: First Selectman Vicki A. Tesoro

Vicki A. Tesoro is a committed public servant and volunteer who has lived in Trumbull for over 27 years with her husband Tom and their two daughters.

A champion of public education, Vicki served on the PTSA for many years, where she developed an innovative teen drug and alcohol prevention program at Trumbull High School that has been used as a model in other towns.

Prior to being elected First Selectman, Vicki served on the Town Council representing District 3 and was a member of the Board of Finance. She has decades of experience as a fiduciary and individual tax consultant associated with prominent law firms in the area. She has settled multimillion dollar estates, working with banks, financial institutions, and attorneys, as well as federal and state tax agencies.

Through years of service to the town of Trumbull, Vicki entered the First Selectman's office with a solid understanding of the issues facing our community and strong working relationships with Town department heads and administrators in our school system. She is a strong advocate for senior tax relief and expansion of programming for our seniors.

As First Selectman, Vicki is committed to using her knowledge, passion, and experience to improve and enhance this wonderful town. Her vision for Trumbull is positive, transparent, and inclusive.
