Variance of Art. III, Sec. I and Art. II, Sec. 1.3.2.3. (1) (2) to have a 271 sq. ft. shed remain on the premises 7.2' from rear lot line and 11.6' from W/S lot line.

We offer no comments at this time.

Alan Watcke

Variance of Art. I, Sec 4.3.1 and Art. III, Sec.1 to enclose front porch and add living space, 35' from the front lot line and 8.5' from the N/S lot line at its closest point.

Crushed stone must be installed under the structure.

STAFF REPORT
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS
June 1, 2020

Application #20-14 – 39 Maple Street, Gregory Sheehan. Variance of Art. I, Sec. 4.3.1 and Art. III, Sec. I to construct a 12' x 16' deck with stairs 29.2' from rear lot line and 44.2' from a front lot line.

Applicant proposes adding a deck to the rear of this dwelling as shown above. The lots in this area are all 100' x 100', so just about any improvement on this property would require a variance. This appears to be a minor variance request.

Application #20-15 – 26 Ridgeview Avenue, Pawel Szymko. Variance of Art. III, Sec. I and Art. II, Sec. 1.3.2.3. (1) (2) to have a 271 sq. ft. shed remain on the premises 7.2' from rear lot line and 11.6' from W/S lot line.

Staff received a complaint about this shed being too big and too close to his property line. A site visit showed that the shed did look oversized for the lot. A Notice of Violation was sent to the Homeowner, who came in regarding same. He requested that he be able to keep where it is, at which time he was told to get a survey to see its actual size and placement. The survey revealed the shed to be 271 sq. ft. where 150 sq. ft. is allowed. The shed is placed properly as the requirement is a minimum of 5' from both the rear and side yard lot lines.

The Board may wish to consider doing a site visit here. Several neighbors have expressed concern over the construction material piled around the shed. In particular, the neighbor most directly affected stated to Staff that the Applicant had agreed to put up a privacy fence in that area but it was never constructed. She has requested that if the shed is to remain there that the material be removed and a fence be put up as promised.

Application #20-16 – 155 Killian Avenue – Tracy Vonick - Variance of Art. II, Sec. 1.3.2.3 to construct a shed with 192 sq. ft. of floor space and 11 ft. in height.

Applicant resides in a ranch style home with a small garage and an unfinished basement that is constantly damp to wet. As such, he has no useable storage space for miscellaneous items. He is requesting a variance as shown above to maximize the needed storage space outside of his home. It should be noted that the regulation rewrite committee will be proposing a change to the regulations to allow for a maximum shed size in all zones to 192 sq. ft. rather than limiting the size to 150 sq. ft. for lot sizes under ½ acre. Staff considers this to be a minor variance request.

Application #20-17 – 2949 Reservoir Avenue – Alan Watcke - Variance of Art. I, Sec 4.3.1 and Art. III, Sec.1 to enclose front porch and add living space, 35' from the front lot line and 8.5' from the S/S lot line at its closest point.

Applicant requests modifying his front porch by enclosing it and adding living space. While the modification does not expand the footprint, he is enlarging the pre-existing non-conforming dwelling as it currently encroaches into the front and side lot lines thus requiring a variance. This appears to be a minor variance request.

We received this notice of application regarding a shed on the above property.

No date is indicated for the Zoning Board of Appeals Public Hearing. Please provide.

Also, please confirm this application is for the already existing shed on this property and NOT for a second one that might be built.

If this is for the existing shed, it had multiple footings poured before it was built and it appears to be over 10' high. Isn't that considered a permanent structure, and not a 'shed'? The size appears to be extensive for the property. After it was built, an additional dog shed extension was added to the rear of the structure.

We are fine with the existing shed with no additional add-ons as long as the property owner puts up a (minimum) 6' high fence to screen off all the building scraps currently being stored behind and along our side of the shed, quite visible to us. The fence would need to run perpendicular from the exiting stockade fence in the back of the yard to at least beyond the front of the shed to reduce the eyesore visible from our property. If a fence cannot be installed, what would then be our recourse?

Respectfully,

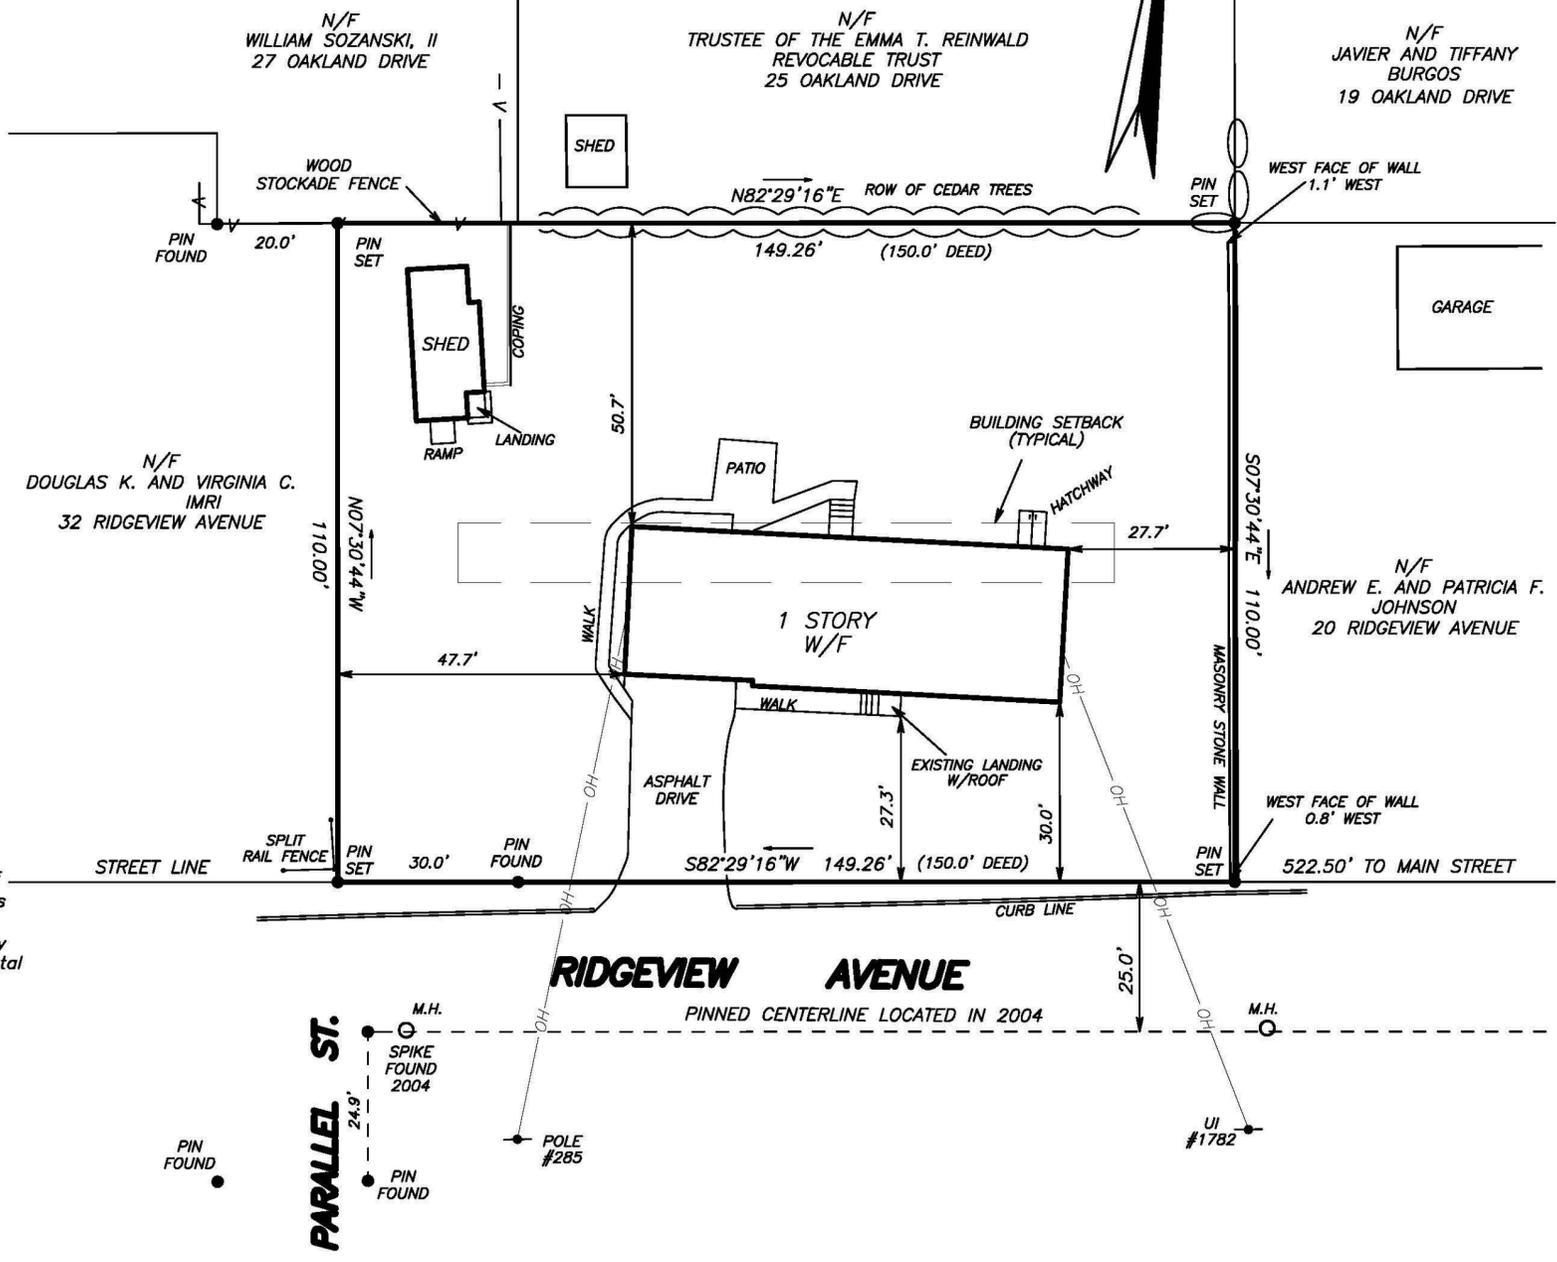

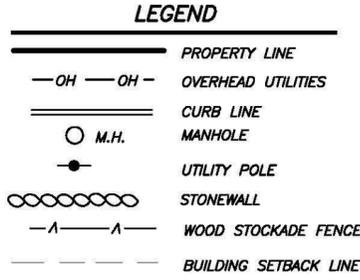

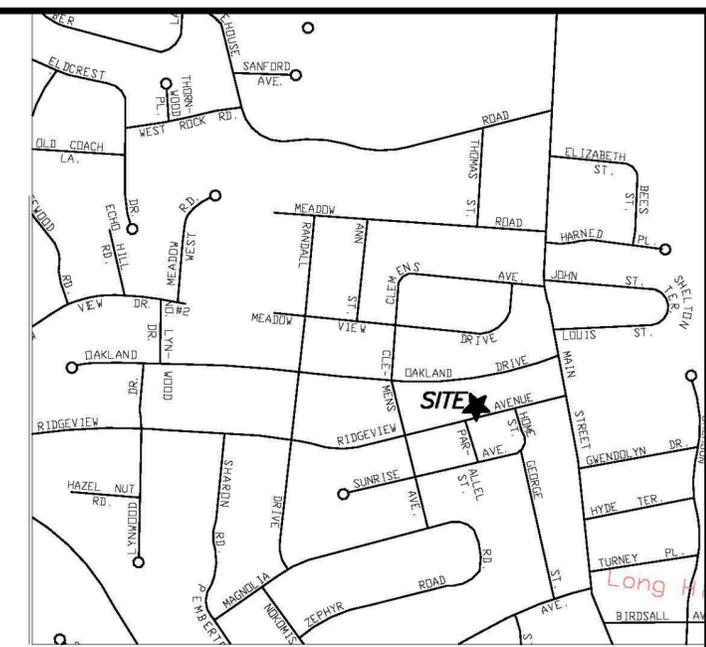

Douglas & Virginia Imri
32 Ridgeview Ave
Trumbull, CT 06611

Our shed was placed in an area of the yard where there were mounds of dirt, stones, weeds and remnants of some previous kind of building. I cleaned and flattened the area over three weekends and thought that the beautifully cleaned square that I created would make for a perfect spot for a shed. I was unaware of any regulations regarding sheds as far as square footage or distance to borders. Many sheds in the neighborhood and across town appear much closer to borders than ours. I intentionally left space around the building to provide access to all sides. The shed is designed for gardening, power tools for landscaping.

I built the shed by myself because I could not afford a prefabricated one and knew that it would be of better quality and appearance. It was a personal project that added value and space to my family's home. I have received many compliments on its construction and many neighbors have asked if I could build a similar one for them. In my opinion, the shed has improved the look of our yard, street and neighborhood. Instead of a small dump there is now a lovely shed.

Subject: 26 Ridgeview Ave zoning waver

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this in reference to a application for a zoning waver for 26 Ridgeview Ave for a shed. I believe if the shed is to stay they need to put up a 8-10 foot fence so neighbors don't have to look at it. The shed is very tall and has a lot of junk around it. It appears they a running a construction business out of the home and have a lot of debris around and 3 trucks with advertising in the driveway and road. I also do not agree with the property markers where they done by a certified surveyor?

The thing I would want is a fence that is tall enough so I do not have to see the shed and mess. They seem to put the junk on the opposite side of the shed so it is out of their view but so neighbors have to look at it. They did the same thing on the other end of the property with the children's play set on that property line.
