David Bailey fell in love with Tai Chi after being an avid soccer player for many years. He began teaching and practicing Tai Chi in the early 2000s and has been teaching at the Trumbull Senior Center for the past ten years. David finds that Tai Chi has many therapeutic benefits and enjoys seeing his students thrive. When you meet David, you will realize that, although he lives in New England, he comes from Merrie Olde England. He emigrated from there in 1972 and has spent the overwhelming amount of his time living in Connecticut. He currently resides in Hamden, where he is happily settled with his wife Deborah.
