Adrienne Parkmond, Esq.

The strength of American democracy depends on the ability of citizens to express their fundamental right to vote. The election may be over, but there is much we can still learn from the 2020 Presidential race. What are the challenges Black Americans face in voting? What does voter suppression look like? And what does it mean for our future to have the first woman, and first woman of color, in the second highest office in the land?

Adrienne Parkmond, Esq. is the Chief Operating Officer of The Workplace in Bridgeport, a $25 million non-profit agency responsible for job training, business development and human services for youths and adults, including services for veterans, older workers, and at-risk populations. Adrienne is past President of the Board of the CT Women's Education and Legal Fund and holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Finance from Villanova University and a Juris Doctor from Quinnipiac University School of Law.
