Learn skills & hobbies with Universal Class

UniversalClass is a continuing education resource that allows Trumbull Library patrons to learn new skills or explore hobbies:

- includes over 600 courses in 35 subject areas
- self-paced learning through videos and written articles
- each course is supervised by an instructor who will grade quizzes/assignments and provide feedback
- after completing a course, you will receive a downloadable certificate and CEU credits

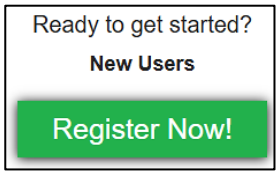

How to get to UniversalClass:

- Go to www.trumbull-ct.gov/Library and click on the Research Center button.
- From there, scroll down to Lifelong Learning, and then click on Universal Class.

First-time users:

- Scroll down and click on the green Register Now! button.
- Enter the 14-digit number from the barcode on the back of your library card, and click Go.
- Fill out your name and email address, and choose a password for your account. Make sure to save your password for when you use the site in the future: this way, your progress will be saved on any courses you take, and you can pick up where you left off.

Returning users:

- If the top of the screen says “Classes I’m Taking,” you are already logged in.
- If the top of the screen says “Welcome Patrons of Trumbull Library,” scroll down and click on the Sign In button to login to your account.

To take a course:

- See what courses are available by clicking Browse Courses and then clicking on a category or entering a search term into the box.

- Click Join This Course.
- Click on the first lesson and watch the video or read the article.
