Trumbull Library

Learn a new language with MANGO

On your computer:

Start at www.trumbull-ct.gov/Library and click on the Research Center button.

Scroll down to the section called Lifelong Learning and click on Mango Languages.

Using for the first time:

1. Click the Sign Up button. (You can use Mango as a guest, but creating an account is recommended so that you can save your progress.)
2. On the Create Your Profile page: Enter your email address, your 14-digit library card number, and create a password for your account. Then click Sign Up. (You'll receive an email asking you to confirm your email address. Just click the link in the email to do this.)
3. On the Data Consent Form page: Scroll down to read it, and click I Agree.
4. On the Pick a Language page: Choose the language you'd like to start learning. You can click from the suggestion list of popular languages. Or, to select from the 70+ languages available, type in the search box or click See All.
5. On the Learn page: Click Start Learning to begin the first lesson. A mini tutorial will pop up to show how the lessons work. You can click the arrow to see the full tutorial, or click Skip Tutorial to go right to your lesson.

Using the site again later:

On the Log In screen, enter your email address and password and click the Log In button.

Click the Resume Learning button to continue where you left off last time.

You can browse the other learning resources in the black menu bar at the top:

- Vocabulary provides flash cards for each lesson chapter, along with the option to create your own.
- Explore presents real movies in your target language, with an option to incorporate grammar/culture lessons, and a choice of subtitles in English, your target language, or both.
- Tools gives you a basic translation engine to translate copy/pasted text, or an entire webpage.

Trumbull Library

Learn a new language with MANGO

On your phone/tablet:

Search for and download the Mango Languages Learning app from the Apple App Store (iPhone) or Google Play Store (Android). Open the app and follow the steps below:

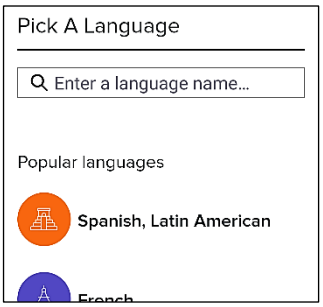

Download on the App Store

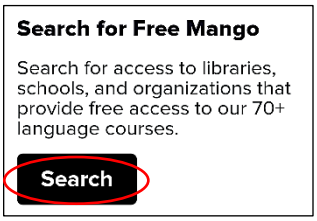

GET IT ON Google Play

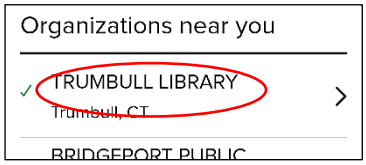

Using for the first time:

1. When the app starts up, tap the Sign Up button.
2. On the Create Your Profile page: Enter your email address, and create a password for your account. Then tap to check off the acknowledgment, and tap Sign Up.
3. On the Pick a Language page: Choose the language you'd like to start learning. You can tap from the suggestion list of popular languages. Or, to select from the 70+ languages available, type in the search box or scroll down.
4. The next page will present a list of pricing options. Mango is free to Trumbull residents, so scroll down to the box that says Search for Free Mango, and tap Search.
5. On the Search for Access page, either enter "Trumbull" in the search box, or tap Search Nearby.
6. From the list of Organizations Near You, tap TRUMBULL LIBRARY.
7. On the next page, enter your 14-digit library card number, then tap Access Mango.
8. On the Success page, click View Unlocked Content.
9. On the Main Units page, click on the first unit and then the first lesson. A mini tutorial will pop up to show how the lessons work. You can tap the arrow to proceed through the full tutorial, or tap Skip Tutorial to go right to your lesson.

Using the app again later:

Tap a unit/chapter, or tap the purple arrow at the bottom to automatically continue where you left off.

When you tap a lesson, it is automatically downloaded to your device. You can tap Download All to download all lessons in this chapter, allowing you to view them offline.

You can browse the other learning resources by swiping across the black menu bar at the bottom:

- Vocabulary provides flash cards for each lesson chapter, along with the option to create your own.
- Explore presents real movies in your target language, with an option to incorporate grammar/culture lessons, and a choice of subtitles in English, your target language, or both.
